

Uniform Guidelines: Cub Pack 18, Troop 18

"The uniform makes the Boy Scout troop visible as a force for good and creates a positive youth image in the community. Boy Scouting is an action program, and wearing the uniform is an action that shows each Boy Scout's commitment to the aims and purposes of Scouting. The uniform gives the Boy Scout identity in a world brotherhood of youth who believe in the same ideals. The uniform is practical attire for Boy Scout activities and provides a way for Boy Scouts to wear the badges that show what they have accomplished" - Aims and Methods of the Scouting Program

Uniform Definitions

BSA defines two standards of uniform. Officially the "Field Uniform," the iconic Blue Cub Scout and Tan Scout Uniform are referred to as Class A. The Activity Shirt (The Pack/Troop T-Shirt) and Scout bottom, referred to as Class B.

In our Units, we wear Class A unless the leader tells you Class B, generally when we are painting. Uniforming is never "required" but is always highly encouraged. Leaders should be in proper uniform as role models whenever possible. Parents not registered as leaders and siblings shall wear a Pack 18 or Troop 18 Class B shirt.

Substitutions/Alternatives

Best effort to comply with uniform guide is appreciated. Nobody is turned away for inappropriate uniforming. This guide serves to eliminate the "what is the uniform" question, the ultimate decision for what you or your child wears is up to you as parent.

Troop 18 sells JCOS Kippot that are appropriate for indoor activities only, outdoor activities require a hat that provides sun protection.
